A Strong Town in the Netherlands, in the Earldom of Flanders, 40 Min. Latitude, and 24 Degrees 40 Min. Longitude in Europe. It was taken by the French in the year 1709. By an Express from Ostend, we

From the Camp before Tournay, July 29 Yesterday in the Evening, the Enemy beat a Parly, and the Duke of Marlborough and Prince Eugene are at this time settling the Articles of Surrender, with the Hostages from the Town. Ostend, July 29. 10 at Night. On Friday last, being the 26th, N. S. all our three Batteries were ordered to fire their Cannon, Mortars and Hauwiz, which continu'd with great Vigour from Three in the Afternoon, till the Rising of the Moon; at which time, 13 Men detach'd out of each Battalion were commanded to make an Attack on a Work that cover'd the Gate of Valenciennes, and on the Cover'd way between the Gate and the Citadel: This was carried on with great Bravery, and the Fire continu'd furiously on both Sides for above an Hour, when our People lodg'd themselves in that Cover'd way that leads from the Gate of Valenciennes to the River Schelde, from that River to the Bastion La Reisse and in the Ravelin that covers the Gate of Valenciennes. We lost in this Attack, amongst others, three chief Ingenieurs besides Captain Taylor.

The City of Tournay is situated on the following River, which is a branch of the Scheldt. The City is surrounded by a Ditch of 1000 Paces, which is 1000 Paces deep, and 1000 Paces wide.
